“social services authority” means a local authority for the purposes of the Local Authority Social Services Act 1970^(a) and the Council of the Isles of Scilly.

Duties of NHS bodies

2.—(1) Before an NHS body gives notice of a patient’s case to a social services authority in compliance with its duty under section 2(2) of the Act, it must comply with paragraphs (2) to (9).

(2) The NHS body must take reasonable steps to ensure that an assessment for NHS Continuing Healthcare is carried out in all cases where it appears to the body that the patient may have a need for such care, in consultation, where it considers it appropriate, with the relevant social services authority.

(3) The NHS body must consult with the patient and, where it considers it appropriate, the patient’s carer when carrying out the assessment.

(4) If an NHS body wishes to use an initial screening process to decide whether to undertake an assessment of a person’s eligibility for NHS Continuing Healthcare it must—

- (a) complete and use the Needs Checklist to inform that decision;
- (b) inform that person of the decision as to whether to carry out an assessment of his eligibility for NHS Continuing Healthcare (including the matters referred to in paragraph (9)); and
- (c) make a record of the decision in the patient’s notes.

(5) An NHS body must ensure that a multi-disciplinary team undertakes an assessment that is to be used to inform a decision as to a person’s eligibility for NHS Continuing Healthcare.

(6) Following an assessment by a multi-disciplinary team in accordance with paragraph (5), the NHS body must—

- (a) ensure that the Decision Support Tool is completed; and
- (b) use the completed Decision Support Tool to inform the decision as to whether that person has a primary health need, and if that person does have a primary health need, the NHS body must decide that the person is eligible for NHS Continuing Healthcare.

(7) In deciding whether a person has a primary health need in accordance with paragraph (6), the NHS body must consider whether the nursing or other health services required by that person are—

- (a) where that person is going to be accommodated in a care home, more than incidental or ancillary to the provision of accommodation which a social services authority is, or would be but for a person’s means, under a duty to provide; or
- (b) of a nature beyond which a social services authority whose primary responsibility is to provide social services could be expected to provide,

and if it determines that the nursing or other health services required do, when considered in their totality, fall within paragraph (a) or (b), it must determine that the person has a primary health need.

(8) Where an assessment for NHS Continuing Healthcare has been carried out in respect of any person, the NHS body shall—

- (a) notify the person assessed in writing of the decision made about his eligibility for NHS Continuing Healthcare, the reasons for that decision and the matters referred to in paragraph (9); and
- (b) make a record of the decision in the patient’s notes.

(9) Where the NHS body has decided that a person is not eligible for NHS Continuing Healthcare pursuant to paragraph (4) or (6), it must inform the person (or where relevant someone section 147 and Schedule 9, paragraphs 16 and 28; and by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 (c.40), section 157, Schedule 14, paragraphs 38 and 52.

(a) 1970 c.42. See section 1.

acting on that person's behalf) that he may apply for a review of the decision pursuant to direction 4(3) of the Responsibilities Directions if he is dissatisfied with—

- (a) the procedure followed by the NHS body in reaching a decision as to that person's eligibility for NHS Continuing Healthcare; or
- (b) the application by the NHS body of the criterion in relation to such a decision.
